

By Her Honor

stories that "change the chance"

Honorable Amy Nechem

About
Justice Amy L. Nechtem

Justice Nechtem served as Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Juvenile Court Department, where she championed trauma-informed practices and led national efforts to reform youth/family-serving systems. A former prosecutor and award-winning national leader, she now brings her decades of experience to the microphone, building bridges across sectors to drive change, amplifying voices too often left unheard.

Impact & Recognition

- Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Juvenile Court (ret.)
- Past President of the National Association of Women Judges (NAWJ)
- United State Dept of Health and Human Services Champion Award for persistent service on behalf of children and families
- National Leader, Judicial Reform Initiatives
- Innovative Access to Justice for Children and Families
- Global Speaker on Leadership, Service, and Justice

By Her Honor is a podcast anchored in the conviction that every child has an inherent right to thrive. Hosted by Justice Amy Nechtem, the show brings together voices from every walk of life — trailblazers in government, business, the arts, and those with lived experience. Through storytelling, honest conversation, and a shared vision, By Her Honor works to build a more compassionate and expansive landscape of opportunity, to truly “change the chance,” and to help balance the scales so every child is safe, supported, and seen.

Host: Justice Amy L. Nechtem (Ret.)
Massachusetts Juvenile Court Chief Justice.

Coming Soon

Platforms: YouTube, Spotify, Apple Music

“This isn’t just a legal conversation; it’s a human one.”

John F. Kennedy

Why

By Her Honor

Created to spark a movement — not just a podcast. Justice Amy L. Nechem invites voices from every corner of society to answer one defining question: “How can we change the chance for every child to thrive?”

The Vision

Children’s futures are shaped not only in courtrooms, but in classrooms, boardrooms, and communities. This platform connects law, education, arts, and advocacy — showing systemic change begins with shared understanding and compassion.

The Impact

Elevate unheard voices
Challenge assumptions
Inspire collaboration across sectors
Call to action to "change the chance"

Justice Nechtem Is Available For Commentary On:

- Judiciary & Rule of Law: Upholding independence, integrity, and access to justice for all.
- Innovative Solutions: Applying creative, practical approaches to complex legal and social challenges.
- System Transformation & Collective Impact: Driving cross-sector collaboration for sustainable change.
- Leadership & Advocacy: A nationally recognized, global judicial leader leveraging decades of experience, championing inequity, strengthening systems, to "change the chance" for vulnerable children and families.

In The Press

Substance, With Style
Suffolk University Magazine
Read the article

Simmons Alumna and Chief Justice Advances System
Improvements in Child Welfare in Massachusetts and Nationally
Simmons University
Read the article

Mass. to expand drug treatment courts for parents struggling with addiction
The Boston Globe
Read the article

Judge goes above and beyond for Lysoa
Item Live
Read the article

Outstanding Swampscott Residents
Swampscott Reporter
Read the article

Media Contact:

Sit By Her Honor
Together let's “change the chance”.

press@byherhonorpodcast.com

@byherhonor

@honorable-amy-nechtem

www.byherhonorpodcast.com